A UNIVERSE of Stories

ADULT SUMMER LIBRARY PROGRAM

Imagine The World: Creative Writing Contest

Enter May 28th to July 8

Calling all writers! Think you got what it takes to win a creative writing competition? Following this year's summer library program theme, we are challenging you to imagine a world and write a story. Any genre accepted. Stories will be displayed after judging for all to read with the winners being published on the Friends of the East Central Library Facebook page. Email entries to lmccwilliams@jgrls.org or bring them to the library. Winners announced at the wrap-up of the summer library program on July 15.

Rules: submit a Short Story, Word Count: 750-1000, Ages: 18 and up, and add a cover sheet for each entry that includes the following: author's name, phone number and email address, title of submission, genre, and word count. Call the library for questions.
