

East Central Public Library

A UNIVERSE of Stories

ADULT SUMMER LIBRARY PROGRAMS On Thursdays

May 28 – July 8 - Imagine the World: Creative Writing Contest Join in the fun all summer long with creative writing. What story can you write? Poetry, Essay or biography, enter and win!

June 6, 2 p.m. - Keep Calm and Fly Me to the Moon: Adult Coloring Join the East Central Public Library as we fly away from our troubles by coloring and listening to relaxing music. All materials provided.

June 13, 2 p.m. - D.I.Y.: Glow-in-the-dark Moon Shirts Bring a black t-shirt and a friend then come join us as we learn to make glow in the dark moon shirts. Paint provided. Registration required.

June 20, 1 p.m. - Play in a Universe of Games Join us for a drop in board game day. Bring a friend and come have some fun! Games provided or bring your own. Have fun with friends!

June 27, 2 p.m. - Paint Your Own: Starry, Starry Night Join us as we paint our own version of Van Gogh's Starry, Starry Night. All materials provided. Registration required.

July 11, 9 a.m. - Movies under the Stars Join us for a movie day under the night sky with back to back showings of captivating space movies: Guardians of the Galaxy, Interstellar, and the Matrix. Food and Refreshments will be served.

Sign up Today!
Register for Prizes!
All Programs are Free.

Adults! Refreshments will be provided at all programs by the Friends of the East Central Library and community sponsors.

Visit or call the library @ 228-588-6263 to save your seat. Registration will begin Tuesday, May 28 (Ages 17 and up).

Check out our Community Sponsor Board and be sure to thank them when you do business!

East Central Public Library
21801 Slider Rd. • 588-6263
Visit us online @ www.jgrls.org

Inspiring Ideas,
Enriching Lives,
Building Communities.