Jackson-George libraries close to observe Veterans Day

All branches of the Jackson-George Regional Library System will be closed on Monday, November 11th in observance of Veterans Day. However, book drops will remain open for returning items and all online services will be available for renewals, holds, and e-services for cardholders. For more information, please visit www.jgrls.org.

All branches will resume their regular hours Tuesday, November 12th.
