Jackson-George Regional Library System Announces Staff Transitions and New Appointments

Pascagoula, MS — The Jackson-George Regional Library System (JGRLS) is pleased to announce several staff transitions and new appointments within the system, strengthening our team and continuing our commitment to excellent service for our communities.

Cory Joiner has been named the new Branch Manager for the Kathleen McIlwain Gautier Public Library. While new to this role, Cory is a familiar face within JGRLS, having previously served as an Administrative Assistant and Talent Acquisition Specialist. His experience and dedication to library services make him a great fit for leading the Gautier branch.

George Broadus, former East Central Branch Manager, has officially transitioned to his new role as Branch Manager of the Pascagoula Public Library. His leadership and experience will bring continued success to the Pascagoula branch.

We are also excited to welcome Katy Osborne to the JGRLS family! She will be stepping into the role of Branch Manager for the Lucedale-George County Public Library, previously held by Cindy Morgan, who recently retired. Katy is set to begin her new position in mid-March, and we look forward to the leadership and vision she will bring to the Lucedale-George County branch.

Additionally, we celebrate Anna MacOwen in her new role as Administrative and Acquisitions Assistant. Anna has been a valued team member, previously serving as the Pascagoula Library Clerk and Outreach Coordinator. Her experience and commitment to library services make her an excellent addition to the administrative team.

We also congratulate the following staff members on their new roles within the system:

- Dorothy Rumfelt joins the Moss Point Public Library staff as First Assistant.
- Tina Tran transitions to Singing River Public Library as First Assistant.
- Marianna French moves to the Pascagoula Public Library.
- Zach Lee will be joining the Ocean Springs Public Library as a Clerk.

As part of these transitions, JGRLS will be seeking a new First Assistant for the Pascagoula Public Library.
