Jackson-George Regional Library System Springs into Music with Freegal!

[Pascagoula, MS] – The Jackson-George Regional Library System (JGRLS) is excited to announce the launch of Freegal Music, a brand-new digital music service available to all library patrons starting April 15, 2025. Just in time for spring, JGRLS is giving music lovers free access to millions of songs from top artists, anytime, anywhere!

With Freegal Music, library cardholders can stream unlimited music and download up to 3 songs per week in an mp3 format to keep forever. From chart-topping hits to classic favorites, Freegal offers a diverse collection across all genres, providing a world of music at your fingertips.

“This is an exciting addition to our digital services,” said Angela Stewart, Library Director. “Whether you’re creating the perfect playlist for spring break, discovering new artists, or revisiting old favorites, Freegal lets our community enjoy music for free, all with the convenience of their library card.”

How to Get Started:

- Visit www.jgrls.org or download the Freegal Music app from Google Play, the Apple Store, or Amazon or one can download it on the Kindle.
- Log in with your JGRLS library card and PIN.
- Start streaming and downloading your favorite songs!

As we “spring into something new” at the library, we invite the community to explore this fantastic service. To learn more about Freegal and other digital offerings, visit www.jgrls.org or stop by your nearest JGRLS branch.
