Learning Express Discontinued Effective July 1, 2025 — Free Educational Alternatives Available

Jackson and George Counties, MS — Due to ongoing budget constraints at the Mississippi Library Commission (MLC), the Jackson-George Regional Library System (JGRLS) has been informed that access to Learning Express will be discontinued, effective July 1, 2025.

Learning Express has long been a valuable tool for patrons preparing for academic and career goals, including test prep, resume building, and skill development. While this change is beyond our control, JGRLS remains committed to supporting lifelong learning and success.

“Our staff and trainers are already working to ensure that the community continues to have access to quality resources,” said Jeanne Damiano, Assistant Director CMS/IT. “We are proud to share a list of trusted and free online tools that can serve as strong alternatives to Learning Express.”

Recommended Free Alternatives:

-  Khan Academy – <https://www.khanacademy.org>
-  SAT Prep (College Board) – <https://satsuite.collegeboard.org/sat>
-  ACT Free Test Prep – <https://www.act.org/content/act/en/products-and-services/the-act/test-preparation/free-act-test-prep.html>
-  GED Study Tools – https://www.ged.com/study/free_online_ged_test/

Patrons are encouraged to visit any JGRLS branch for help accessing these resources or to get support from a librarian.

For more information, contact your local library branch or visit www.jgrls.org.
