Jackson-George Regional Library System Highlights Kanopy as August's Featured E-Resource Free Streaming Entertainment and Educational Content with Your Library Card

PASCAGOULA, Miss. – The Jackson-George Regional Library System (JGRLS) is excited to announce Kanopy as the E-Resource Highlight of the Month, giving library cardholders free access to thousands of award-winning films, documentaries, educational videos, children's programming, and more.

Whether you're looking for critically acclaimed movies, family-friendly entertainment, independent films, or educational resources, Kanopy offers something for every age and interest, all at no cost with a valid Jackson-George Regional Library System library card.

"Kanopy is more than a streaming service, it's a gateway to lifelong learning and entertainment," said Stephanie Packer, Public Relations & Marketing Specialist for Jackson-George Regional Library System. "We encourage our community to discover the incredible collection of films and educational content available anytime, anywhere, completely free through their library."

Why Choose Kanopy?

- Free with your JGRLS library card
- Stream thousands of acclaimed films and documentaries
- Educational content for students and lifelong learners
- Family-friendly programming with Kanopy Kids
- Watch anytime, anywhere on your computer, tablet, smartphone, or smart TV

Kanopy is also an excellent resource for educators through Kanopy in Classrooms, helping fuel critical thinking, extend learning beyond the textbook, and support visual and diverse learners.

Getting started is easy. Visit <https://www.kanopy.com/en/jgrls> or scan the QR code featured on this month's promotional graphic. Simply sign in using your Jackson-George Regional Library System library card to begin streaming.

For more information about Kanopy or other free digital resources available through JGRLS, visit www.jgrls.org or stop by any Jackson-George Regional Library System branch.
